

The Best Intern Opportunity in the World

Dongsha Atoll Research Station, 2019

SITE:

Dongsha Atoll in South China Sea

Duration:

2 to 4 weeks in May – Sep. 2019 (extension possible)

Work:

Assisting scientists from different countries, serving as a deckhand of small RVs (up to 42 feet), diving buddy, other UW and surface activities. Lab assisting.

(All activities under guidance and supervision of Dongsha Atoll Research Station.)

Qualifications:

MUST: Diving certificate, driving capability, certain level of English communication, registered student of a college/university.

(Optional qualification: Mandarin Chinese communication, boat experience, academic major of relevant disciplines, photography + video experience, basic-middle level mechanics)

Application:

A CV, a 2-min YouTube introduction of yourself helps. Explain your qualification mentioned above. All in one message with the subject as “DARS Intern Application-2019” to yibeiliang@gmail.com

Deadline:

Until positions filled (several available). First review December 25, 2018 .

We provide:

Free room/food on Dongsha Island, domestic flights between Kaohsiung and Dongsha, Insurance on Dongsha.

Port of Entry: Kaohsiung (KHH), Taiwan

More Information about Dongsha: Check website of “Dongsha Atoll Research Station” (DARS) and “Marine National Park”, or “Dongsha Atoll National Park” of Taiwan.

DARS is managed by the Department of Oceanography, National Sun Yat-sen University, Kaohsiung, Taiwan.