

South China Sea Young Scientist Cooperation Workshop

An Opportunity for International Students and Researchers

► Aim: Promoting scientific cooperation between countries around SCS on earth science, marine science, atmospheric sciences and life sciences. For this particular workshop, priorities will be given to disciplines of high relevance to marine studies.

► Date: 2019/2/24-2/26

► Location: Magong city, Penghu

► Activities: Visiting the following institutions

(1) Penghu Marine Biology Research Center

(2) Marine Life Propagation Station

(3) Penghu Aquarium

(4) National Penghu University of Science and Technology

► Qualification: Registered international postgraduate students (MS or PhD), Postdoctoral researchers in Taiwan from South China Sea countries.

► Application:

Submit a CV including your name, country, affiliation, educational background, major advisor and other information about you in one A4 page to: yibeiliang@gmail.com before 1/15

► Fee: Transportation to Penghu and accommodation in Penghu will be covered by the host.

► Host: Department of Oceanography, National Sun Yat-sen University

Co-host: Department of Marine Recreation, National Penghu University of Science and Technology

海洋科學系
Department of Oceanography
National Sun Yat-sen University

海洋遊憩系

